Students Of The Week

Isabelle - for her resilient attitude while completing literacy! Isabelle is prepared to put in a huge amount of hard work throughout writing time. This has led to improvements in her letter formation and spelling, allowing her writing time to become easier and more productive. She will regularly attempt, multiple times, to make sure her work looks correct. Great job, Isabelle! (absent for photo)

Brooke – for commencing the school year with lots of confidence! She is a positive contributor to our classroom, especially during literacy activities. Brooke is a highly engaged student and gives her best in everything she undertakes. Brooke, 2019 is set to be a very productive year for you. Well done!

SCHOOL COUNCIL ELECTIONS:

REMINDER: We have not received sufficient nominations to fill our vacant school council positions. Please consider nominating to be a school councillor. Nomination / Self-nomination forms were attached to last week's newsletter and are available outside the office.

Thank you to all those who attended our Parent / Student/Teacher Interviews this week. We will have some catch-ups next week for those who were unable to attend.

This workshop will help us learn from your experience and better understand your needs. It focuses how different parts of the community – including families and services – can contribute to the development of language and literacy skills in young children.

When: Wednesday 27 February 2019 at 1pm - 4pm
Where: Inglewood Community Neighbourhood House, 20 Verdon Street Inglewood.

GRADE 6 T-SHIRTS:

Hi There, I am just wanting to give you an update in the grade 6 shirts. They arrived on Tuesday but unfortunately, one of the student's names was spelt incorrectly (on all of the shirts)! 😊 I have been in contact with Beth and she is reordering all of the shirts again and going to redo them. She has said they will arrive on Monday and be done on the Monday or Tuesday of next week. I will be following this up very closely next week. I am so very sorry for yet another muck up, but hopefully we can get it all right this time. Give me a call if you have any further questions relating to this. Cheers, Leah

Bridgewater Primary School Fundraiser BBQ on Sunday 17th March, 2019 at Bunnings in Kangaroo Flat

Hi Everyone,

Our first fundraiser for the school year is a BBQ to be held at the Bunnings Store in Kangaroo Flat. It would involve cooking and serving sausages in bread and selling some cold drinks. We require a minimum of 3 people on the stall at all times and would really appreciate some volunteers for the day. Please find below a table that has two hour time slots with a 15 minute overlap to do a hand over for the next crew. Please pop your Family name in your preferred time slot and hand this form back into the office, or message me on the school facebook page. I will then draw up a final roster closer to the date.

Thanking you all in advance.

Cheers

Leah Bailey
