School profile statement

Bridgewater Primary School is a small rural school approximately 40 km North West from Bendigo. We cater for about 30 students in multi-age groupings. Our philosophy is 'Continually Improving' which we strive to achieve through best practice, inquiry, reflection, celebration of our achievements and the provision of a safe environment. A comprehensive curriculum plan provides the school with the means of addressing key educational priorities and issues. The implementation of AUSVELS (National Curriculum), seeks to support our students in becoming life-long learners, confident and creative individuals, active and informed citizens, and to promote equity and excellence in education. Our curriculum endeavours to equip our young people with the essential skills, social and emotional competence, knowledge and capabilities to thrive and compete in a globalised and information rich world.

The school is committed to consultative principles of democratic decision-making, whole school planning and a systematic approach to evaluation and development. The students' best interests are always at the core of our practice. Our school is committed to equity and fairness, to engaging all members of our community, celebrating differences & diversity.

Parental involvement is an essential element of school operations that is welcomed and encouraged. Parents are involved in supporting school committee structures, curriculum programs, fundraising and the development of facilities and resources. Our school has an open-door policy, encouraging parents and community members to communicate openly & honestly. These factors combine to ensure a strong partnership between home and school.

3 Rights and responsibilities

Collective responsibility

3.1 Guiding principles

Every member of our school community has a right to fully participate in an educational environment that is safe, supportive and inclusive. Everyone deserves to be treated with respect and dignity.

3.2 Equal Opportunity

The Equal Opportunity Act 1995 sets out the types or grounds of discrimination that are unlawful and aims to promote community recognition and acceptance of the equality of men and women, and the equality of people of all races, regardless of their religious or political convictions, their impairments or their age.

Under the act it is unlawful to discriminate against a person on the basis of the following attributes:

- age
- breastfeeding
- gender identity
- impairment
- industrial activity
- lawful sexual activity
- marital status
- parental status or status as carer
- physical features
- political belief or activity
- pregnancy
- race
- religious belief or activity
- sex
- sexual orientation
- personal association (with a person who is identified by reference to any of the above attributes).

3.3 The Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006

The Charter sets out a list of 20 rights that reflect the following four basic principles:

- Freedom
- Respect
- Equality
- Dignity

The charter outlines a vision of human rights for all Victorians. The charter affirms that all people are born free and equal in dignity and rights. While the charter demands equality for all, it also emphasises the value of difference. The charter requires public authorities, including government schools and their employees, to act compatibly with human rights and to consider human rights when making decisions and delivering services.

- The right not to be discriminated against
- The right to privacy and reputation
- The right to freedom of thought, conscience, religion and belief
- Cultural Rights

It is important to understand that with human rights comes a responsibility to respect other human rights.

All DEECD employees must act compatibly with the Charter and give proper consideration to human rights when making decisions. Everyone should:

- Encourage compliance with the Charter
- Support others to act compatibly with the Charter, and
- Respect and promote human rights

3.4 Students with disabilities

The Disability Standards for Education 2005 clarify and make more explicit the obligations on schools and the rights of students under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992. The standards cover enrolment, participation, curriculum development, student support services, and harassment and victimisation.

An education provider must make 'reasonable adjustments' to accommodate a student with disability. An adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist a student with disability to participate in education and training on the same basis as other students. An adjustment is reasonable if it does this while taking into account the student's learning needs and balancing the interests of all parties affected, including those of the student with the disability, the education provider, staff and other students.

In determining whether an adjustment is reasonable, an education provider should take into account information about:

- the nature of the student's disability
- his or her preferred adjustment
- any adjustments that have been provided previously
- any recommended or alternative adjustments.

This information might come from the student, an associate of the student, independent experts, or a combination of these people.

An education provider should ensure that the student, or an associate of the student, has timely information about the processes for determining whether the proposed adjustment would cause unjustifiable hardship to the provider. The provider should also ensure that these processes maintain the dignity, respect, privacy and confidentiality of the student and the associates of the student, consistent with the rights of the rest of the community.

The provider may consider all likely costs and benefits, both direct and indirect, for the provider, the student and any associates of the student, and any other persons in the learning or wider community, including:

- costs associated with additional staffing, providing special resources or modifying the curriculum
- costs resulting from the student's participation in the learning environment, including any adverse impact on learning and social outcomes for the student, other students and teachers
- benefits of the student's participation in the learning environment, including positive learning and social outcomes for the student, other students and teachers, and
- any financial incentives, such as subsidies or grants, available to the provider if the student participates.

The DDA and the Education Standards do not require changes to be made if this would impose unjustifiable hardship to a person or organisation. See references

3.5 Bullying and harassment

Definitions

Harassment is any verbal, physical or sexual conduct (including gestures) which is uninvited, unwelcome or offensive to a person.

Bullying is oppression, physical or psychological, of a less powerful person by a more powerful person or group.

Cyber bullying is a form of bullying which is carried out through an internet service such as email, chat room, discussion group, online social networking, instant messaging or web pages. It can also include bullying through mobile phone technologies such as SMS. It may involve text or images

Appendix 2 Equal Opportunity Policy

Appendix 3 Anti-Bullying Policy

Appendix 4 Risk Management

Appendix 5 Use of Digital Technology Policy

It is important for the school to provide a safe and friendly environment for students and staff and to encourage care, courtesy and respect for others. All persons have a legal right to protection from harassment under the Commonwealth Sex Discrimination Act and the Victorian Equal Opportunity Act.

The effects of harassment or bullying include:

- poor health – anxiety, depression
- lower self esteem
- reduced study performance
- missed classes, social withdrawal
- reduced career prospects

If a student sees another person being harassed or bullied they should tell the person that you witnessed the incident and advise them to report it to an appropriate person. However, if your friend is harassing another person, let them know that their behaviour is unacceptable.

Bystanders who do nothing to stop bullying may be contributing to the problem by providing an audience for the bully

Harassment is usually directed at a person because of their gender, race, creed or abilities. It can be subtle or explicit.

Subtle: (The most common)

They include:

- Offensive staring and leering.
- Unwanted comments about physical appearance and sexual preference.
- Racist or smutty comments or jokes.
- Questions about another's sexual activity.
- Persistent comments about a person's private life or family.
- Physical contact e.g. purposely brushing up against another's body.
- Offensive name calling.

Explicit: (obvious)

They include:

- Grabbing, aggressive hitting, pinching and shoving etc.
- Unwelcome patting, touching, embracing.
- Repeated requests for dates, especially after refusal.
- Offensive gestures, jokes, comments, letters, phone calls or e-mail.
- Sexually and/or racially provocative remarks.
- Displays of sexually graphic material– pornography.
- Requests for sexual favours.

Extreme forms of sexual harassment will lead to criminal prosecution.

Bullying can involve such things as

- Grabbing, aggressive staring, hitting, pinching kicking, pushing and shoving.
- Publicly excluding a person from your group
- taking or breaking a person's property
- knocking a person's books or belongings out of their hands or off their desk
- teasing a person because of their looks

Cyber bullying

Being involved in online spaces – either at home or at school - requires students to behave responsibly. This includes:

- the language you use and the things you say
- how you treat others
- respecting people's property (e.g. copyright)
- visiting appropriate places.
- protecting your own privacy and the privacy of others
- being proactive in letting someone know if there is something is 'not quite right'.

(at home this would be a parent or carer, at school a teacher)

If you are being harassed or bullied you should:

- Tell the person you don't like what they are doing and you want them to stop.
- Discuss the matter with a teacher or trusted adult that you feel comfortable with.

At Bridgewater Primary School we will take your concerns seriously. All complaints will be treated confidentially.

4 Shared expectations

Schools – principals, teachers and school staff

Bridgewater Primary School has a responsibility to provide an educational environment that ensures that all students are valued and cared for, feel they are part of the school, and can engage effectively in their learning and experience success.

The school's values are based on the Australian Government's nine values, for Australian schools, which are:

- Care and Compassion Care for self and others
- Integrity Act in accordance with principles of moral and ethical conduct, ensure consistency between words and deeds
- Doing Your Best Seek to accomplish something worthy and admirable, try hard, pursue excellence
- Respect Treat others with consideration and regard, respect another person's point of view
- Fair Go Pursue and protect the common good where all people are treated fairly for a just society
- Responsibility Be accountable for one's own actions, resolve differences in constructive, non-violent and peaceful ways, contribute to society and to civic life, take care of the environment
- Freedom Enjoy all the rights and privileges of Australian citizenship free from unnecessary interference or control, and stand up for the rights of others
- Understanding, Tolerance and Inclusion Be aware of others and their cultures, accept diversity within a democratic society, being included and including others
- Honesty and Trustworthiness Be honest, sincere and seek the truth

School expectations include:

- inclusive teaching practices
- accessible educational provision for all students
- parent/carer partnerships and liaison
- community partnerships which engage families and the community in ways that support student achievement and success
- provision of appropriate student services
- development and provision of appropriate, relevant and challenging curriculum that gives students the opportunity to experience success in their learning.

Restorative Practices

The school is committed to the use of restorative practices with students. Restorative Practices:

- are underpinned by student learning and facilitate an environment of safety, trust and connectedness (Bond et al. 2001, Fuller 1999)
- promote awareness of others, responsibility and empathy (Hopkins 2002)
- involve direct and voluntary participation of those affected by misconduct in its resolution (Braithwaite 2001b)
- promote relationship management rather than behaviour management (Cameron & Thorsborne 2001)
- separate the deed from the doer (Marshall et al. 2002)
- are systematic, not situational (Armstrong 2004)
- are concerned with establishing or re-establishing social equality in relationships; that is, relationships in which each person's rights to equal dignity, concern and respect are satisfied (Morrison 2002).

Diversity in the school community

The school aims to address diversity by:

- maintaining a highly skilled, motivated and energetic workforce who are better able to meet the needs of a diverse school community
- attracting highly skilled and diverse staff making the school a preferred employer
- increasing the range of knowledge, skills and experiences available in the workforce
- enhancing the capacity for effective decision-making due to the greater diversity of perspectives and inputs
- creating more effective work teams due to increased participation levels and an increased capacity to solve problems.

School actions/consequences

Student engagement, regular attendance and positive behaviours will be supported through relationship based whole-school and classroom practices, including:

- establishing predictable, fair and democratic classrooms and school environments
- ensuring student participation in the development of classroom and whole school expectations
- providing personalised learning programs where appropriate for individual students
- consistently acknowledging all students
- empowering students by creating multiple opportunities for them to take responsibility and be involved in decision-making
- providing physical environments conducive to positive behaviours and effective engagement in learning

Inappropriate behaviours, including irregular attendance, will be responded to through a staged response, including:

- understanding the student's background and needs
- ensuring a clear understanding of expectations by both students and teachers
- providing consistent school and classroom environments
- scaffolding the student's learning program.

Broader support strategies will include:

- involving and supporting the parents/carers,
- involving the student wellbeing team and DEECD regional staff to manage individual pathways.
- tutoring/peer tutoring
- mentoring and/or counselling
- convening student support group meetings – the student support group is an important component of the staged response for students facing difficulty with engagement, attendance or behaviour
- developing individualised flexible learning, behaviour or attendance plans
- providing broader educational programs, for example experiential learning, work education, camps/outdoor education/creative arts
- involving community support agencies.

Discipline procedures – suspension and expulsion

When considering suspension or expulsion, schools are required to follow the procedures listed in section 4.3 of the DEECD guidelines published in Effective Schools are Engaging Schools Student Engagement Policy Guidelines. Appendices 12 to 18 of the guidelines provide flowcharts and proformas for use in suspension and expulsion procedures.

A student may only be excluded from school in situations where all other measures have been implemented without success or where an immediate suspension is the only appropriate course of action in response to the student's behaviour.

Consequences which may be used prior to suspension include:

- Withdrawal of privileges
- Withdrawal from class if a student's behaviour significantly interferes with the rights of other students to learn or the capacity of a teacher to teach a class, that student may be temporarily isolated from regular classroom activities or, in more severe cases, required to leave the classroom for a specified period of time.

Where appropriate, parents/carers should be informed of such withdrawals.

- Detention - teachers may require a student to finish school work that has not been completed in the regular classroom or to undertake additional or new work or duties at a reasonable time and place. No more than half the time allocated for any recess may be used for this work. Where students are required to undertake school work after school, the time should not exceed forty-five minutes. The principal should ensure that parents/carers are informed at least the day before the detention. Where family circumstances are such that the completion of after-school work would create undue hardship (for example, where students regularly supervise younger siblings in the absence of parents/carers), the school may choose to negotiate alternative disciplinary measures with parents/carers.
- Convening of a support group
(See Effective Schools are Engaging Schools - Student Engagement Policy Guidelines for process required).

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

Reviewed: September, 2012

Revise: September, 2015

Our Whole School Approach to Discipline

This policy is based on the following beliefs:

- All members of this school community will respect the rights and values of others.
- No one has a right to interfere with the learning of others.
- Students have the right to work in a positive and supportive environment without intimidation where they are able to develop their talents, interests and ambitions.
- Parents should expect that their children will be educated in a secure environment where care, courtesy and respect for the rights and property of others are observed.
- Teachers should expect to be able to teach in an atmosphere of order and co-operation.
- Parents have an obligation to support the school in its efforts to maintain a productive teaching and learning environment.
- The Principal and staff have an obligation to implement the code of conduct fairly, reasonably and consistently.

We are committed to the following strategies:

- Giving constant positive reinforcement
- Improving self esteem
- Encouraging friendship
- Developing pride in the school
- Developing respect in one's own and other's property
- Encouraging sharing, tolerance and compassion and consideration of others amongst children
- Being consistent and fair
- Encouraging organized and responsible play within our playground
- Protecting the rights of everyone

We encourage teachers to:

- Continually evaluate teaching strategies
- Provide adequate supervision – refer to Care and Responsibility Policy.
- Encourage awareness and understanding of school rules
- Request advice and assistance and support when needed
- Provide appropriate strategies for the resolution of conflict using a restorative practice approach
- Provide appropriate strategies for protection of individual rights

WHOLE SCHOOL RULES

Whole School Rules are based on children's Rights and Responsibilities.

1. Children have a right to be respected and treated with kindness.
2. Children have a right to work and play without being disturbed by the inappropriate behaviour of others.
3. Children have a right to be listened to when expressing themselves.
4. Children have a right to a safe and comfortable playground.
5. Children have a responsibility to be safety conscious in relation to themselves and others.

These rules also will be considered in two categories:

- minor breaches with low level consequences, and
- repeated/serious breaches with high level consequences.

Whole School Approach to Major Offences

Major breaches apply to the following situations:

- Repeated incidents where a student has not responded to restorative approaches or low level consequences
- Violation Reports are completed 3 times in any one term.
- Students repeatedly are isolated in another classroom.
- High Level breaches:
  - Damage / theft of property
  - Physical Assault (to students, teacher, adult)
  - Verbal Abuse (bullying, inappropriate language)

Consequences

Code of Conduct Violation

After set steps (warning, isolation, removal from room/playground), a Code of Conduct Violation Report is completed by the supervising teacher. This is signed by the student. The student will also be asked to complete a written account of their behaviour on a proforma stating: Who? When? Where? Why?

- A counselling process is an important part of this process.
- These violations are monitored through the Welfare component of each weekly staff meeting.
- The issuing of three violations in any one term will result in a meeting with parents.

Behaviour Management Plans

As a result of a meeting with the student and parent(s) a Behaviour Management Plan will be developed. This targets certain behaviour for improvement. It includes clear consequences where warnings are not necessary. It also includes a reward system for appropriate behaviour. The emphasis is clearly on improving behaviour. It includes support from home. Where necessary, support for the home situation will be negotiated with outside agencies.

The Suspension Process

This is a serious disciplinary measure and should only be used when other measures have not resulted in improved behaviour. In most cases, discussions should already have occurred with parents.

The Principal will be responsible for making the final decision.

Parents will be notified in writing of the reason, and times.

Work to be completed at home during the suspension will be provided.

A re-entry to school after suspension process will be implemented. Re-entry is to be considered a privilege, not a right.

Return to School after Suspension

Re-entry to school is a privilege, not a right.

Prior to returning to the classroom, the student will need to meet with the Principal. Parents may attend if they wish. He/she will need to show that they understand the appropriate behaviour required, that they are genuinely remorseful and that they are settled. If this is not the case, work will be set for the student outside of the classroom. Their re-entry will undergo further negotiation.

The Expulsion Process

The Principal will make the decision.

Implementation will occur in line with the Ministerial Order 625 Suspensions & Expulsions

This process will only be implemented after all other relevant forms of behaviour management have been implemented and exhausted.

CLASSROOM RULES

Class teachers will be responsible for negotiating positive and negative consequences for classroom behavioural expectations. Positive consequences might include: praise, stickers, certificates, note sent home, awards, and team points. The focus is on reinforcement of “doing the right thing” and on improvement in targeted behaviour. Negative consequences will also be clearly outlined. As well as management strategies implemented by classroom teachers, a whole school approach will be followed for breaches beyond warnings and failure to respond to positive strategies.

Whole School Approach to MINOR offences in the classroom and Red Card procedures.

1. Stop the child / class.
2. Explain undesirable behaviour.
3. Warning – if behaviour continues the consequence will be: isolated in classroom for 10-15mins at specific table, with work, and no interaction with any students.
If undesirable behaviour continues:
4. Isolated in classroom as described above.
If after returning to normal classroom process, undesirable behaviour continues,
5. Removal from room – until the next play period (11.00, 12.30 or 3.15)
(Arrange with another classroom teacher to supervise the student.- do not send alone, provide written instructions and plenty of written work)
6. If disruptive behaviour continues, removed from the classroom and sent to the office for the remainder of the day, or to whoever is in charge. Written work must be provided.

Possible negative consequences imposed by classroom teachers

Removal of privilege; detention; exclusion from class activity; extra homework

Note: Department regulations regarding detention are:

1. up to 50% of scheduled recess
2. up to 30 min during lunch time
3. up to 45 min after school (parents need to be notified when this will occur)
4. Students are supervised during this time

Monitoring Processes

All incident reports are kept for the year. The welfare component of our weekly staff meetings is to be used to discuss incidents and any concerns. The aims are to increase awareness; share positive strategies and to maintain consistency. It is also an opportunity to share potential concerns and move positively to stop inappropriate behaviour in the early stages. Each term is considered a fresh start for each student.

Data of incidents (whilst maintaining confidentiality) is shared with School Council at the end of each term.

Teachers are also encouraged to note minor offences where there may be a concern because of the frequency of behaviours. This may be done for up to 2 weeks.

BRIDGEWATER P.S. RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY

PURPOSE

Endorsed by School Council: Dec, 2012

Risk is intrinsic to our world and therefore, the management of risk and recognition of opportunities are integral to achieving our vision, mission and goals and delivering on our strategic plan.

This policy recognises systematic risk management is integral to good management and effective governance required of an autonomous public school. Through proactive management of risks and opportunities, Bridgewater Primary School aims to improve decision making and outcomes.

Risk will manifest itself in most activities and endeavours we undertake including delivering key learning outcomes, supporting wellbeing, maintaining finances and infrastructure and building our reputation.

By asking “What if ...” questions and through planning, risk can be reduced or mitigated. Through these processes we will foster success and be better prepared to respond if (or when) the risks materialise.

RESPONSIBILITY & GUIDELINES

As the Secretary states in his foreword on the Department’s Risk Management Policy, “Risk management is everyone’s responsibility and must be wired into all planning and implementation.” All staff members at Bridgewater Primary School are specifically responsible for identifying and for managing risk within their areas of responsibility.

Risks must be balanced against our goals and our community’s expectations. E.g. If we had an excursion organised in or near bushland and extreme weather conditions were forecast, the risk would clearly outweigh the benefits.

The effort expended on risk management should be proportional to the risk but we must at least identify, communicate and consult on risks to be able to make the assessment of how much effort to expend. Resources used to manage risk should also be commensurate with the risks and legislative requirements.

Risk management must be integrated into all planning, when activities occur spontaneously or plans change, risk management may become even more important and must be considered.

Any risks which cannot be mitigated below “High” must be immediately brought to the Principals attention, who may consider stopping the activity. Additionally, where the risk is assessed as ‘Medium’ level, staff should consider whether they have responsibility for the activity and the authority to accept the risk.

IMPLEMENTATION

Bridgewater Primary School will utilise the Department’s Enhanced Risk Management Framework adopting and using the procedures, guidelines, language and tools which can be accessed through the edugate Risk Management site at: <https://edugate.eduweb.vic.gov.au/Services/Policies/Pages/Risk.aspx>

When a risk is assessed is medium , or higher, the risk will be documented on Bridgewater Primary School’s Risk Register (based on the Department’s sample register), with the exception of those hazards recorded in the Occupational Health and Safety Register.

The risk register will be reviewed by the Leadership Team at the start of each term and by the School Council at their second meeting of each term. The purpose of these reviews will be to gauge the effectiveness of risk management as a whole and of specific controls for critical activities and risks.

The school council will also review risk assessments for all activities to be undertaken away from the school grounds. Risks are to be assessed using the Department’s guidelines unless agreed by School Council.

CONCLUSION

Risk management is everyone’s responsibility and must be considered in all program planning and implementation at Bridgewater Primary School.

Assessment of risk will be a key consideration in all decision making, including wellbeing, financial management and governance. This does not mean we need to adopt a culture of risk aversion as we strive to achieve our school vision and goals.
